

THE RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL OF BATTLE

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1962

THE RURAL DISTRICT OF BATTLE (NORTHAM NO.1)

TREE PRESERVATION ORDER 1966

THE RURAL DISTRICT COUNCIL OF BATTLE acting on behalf of the East Sussex County Council (in this Order called "the Authority") in pursuance of the powers conferred in that behalf by Section 29 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1962, and subject to the provisions of Section 13 of the Forestry Act 1951, hereby make the following Order:-

1. In this Order -

"the Act" means the Town and Country Planning Act 1962;

"owner" means the owner in fee simple, either in possession or who has granted a lease or tenancy of which the unexpired portion is less than three years; a lessee (including a sub-lessee) or tenant in possession, the unexpired portion of whose lease or tenancy is three years or more; and a mortgagee in possession; and

"the Minister" means the Minister of Land and Natural Resources.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Order and to the exemptions specified in the Second Schedule hereto, no person shall, except with the consent of the Authority and in accordance with the conditions, if any, imposed on such consent, cut down, top, lop, or wilfully destroy or cause or permit the cutting down, topping, lopping, or wilful destruction of any tree specified in the First Schedule hereto or comprised in a group of trees therein specified the position of which trees and groups of trees is defined in the manner indicated in the said First Schedule on the map annexed hereto, which map shall, for the purpose of such definition as aforesaid, prevail where any ambiguity arises between it and the specification in the said First Schedule.

3. An application for consent made ~~to the Authority~~ under Article 2 of this Order shall be in writing stating the reasons for making the application, and shall by reference if necessary to a <sup>plan</sup> map specify the tree or trees to which the application relates, and the operations for the carrying out of which consent is required.

4. (1) Where an application for consent is made to the ~~Authority~~ under this Order, the Authority may grant such consent either unconditionally, or subject to such conditions (including conditions requiring the replacement of any tree by one or more trees on the site or in the immediate vicinity thereof), as the Authority may think fit, or may refuse consent. ~~¶~~ Provided that where the application relates to any woodland specified in the First Schedule to this Order the Authority shall grant consent so far as accords with the principles of good forestry, except where, in the opinion of the Authority, it is necessary in the interests of amenity to maintain the special character of the woodland or the woodland character of the area, and shall not impose conditions on such consent requiring replacement or replanting. ~~‡~~

(2) The Authority shall keep a register of all applications for consent under this Order containing information as to the nature of the application, the decision of the Authority thereon and any compensation awarded in consequence of such decision, and every such register shall be available for inspection by the public at all reasonable hours.

5. Where the Authority refuse consent under this Order or grant such consent subject to conditions they may when refusing or granting consent certify in respect of any trees for which they are so refusing or granting consent that they are satisfied -

- (a) that the refusal or condition is in the interests of good forestry; or
- (b) that the trees (other than trees comprised in woodlands) have an outstanding or special amenity value.

~~6. (1) Where consent is granted under this Order to fell any part of a woodland then unless -~~

- ~~(a) such consent is granted for the purpose of enabling development to be carried out in accordance with a permission to develop land under Part III of the Act, or~~
- ~~(b) the Authority with the approval of the Minister dispense with the replanting, the Authority shall give to the owner of the land on which that part of the woodland is situated a Direction in writing specifying the manner in which and the time within which he shall replant such land and where such a Direction is given and the part is felled the owner shall subject to the provisions of this Order replant the said land in accordance with the Direction.~~

(2) Any Direction given under Paragraph (1) of this Article may include requirements as to -

(a) species;

~~(b) number of trees per acre;~~

- ~~(c) the erection and maintenance of fencing necessary for protection of the replanting;~~
- (d) the preparation of ground, draining, removal of brushwood, lop and top; and
- ~~(e) protective measures against fire.~~

6. The provisions set out in the Third Schedule to this Order, being provisions of Parts III and VII of the Act adapted and modified for the purposes of this Order, shall apply in relation thereto.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Order, any person who has suffered damage or has incurred expenditure in consequence of any refusal of consent under this Order or of any grant of any such consent subject to conditions, shall, if he makes a claim on the Authority within the time and in the manner prescribed by this Order, be entitled to recover from the Authority compensation in respect of such damage or expenditure;

Provided that no compensation shall be payable in respect of damage suffered or expenditure incurred by reason of such refusal or grant of consent in the case of any trees the subject of a certificate in accordance with Article 5 of this Order.

8. In assessing compensation payable under the last preceding Article or under Section 118 of the Act as applied by this Order account shall be taken of:-

- (a) any compensation or contribution which has been paid in respect of the same trees under the terms of this or any other Tree Preservation Order under Section 29 of the Act or under the terms of any Interim Preservation Order made under Section 8 of the Town and Country Planning (Interim Development) Act 1943, or any compensation which has been paid or which could have been claimed under any provision relating to the preservation of trees or protection of woodlands contained in an operative scheme under the Town and Country Planning Act 1932, and
- (b) any injurious affection to any land of the owner which would result from the felling of the trees the subject of the claim.

9. (1) A claim for compensation under this Order shall be in writing and shall be made by serving it on the Authority such service to be effected by delivering the claim at the offices of the Authority addressed to the Clerk thereof or by sending it by prepaid post so addressed.

(2) The time within which any such claim shall be made as aforesaid shall be a period of twelve months from the date of the decision of the Authority, or of the Minister, as the case may be, or where an appeal has been made to the Minister against the decision of the Authority, from the date of the decision of the Minister on the appeal

10. Any question of disputed compensation shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 128 of the Act.

11. Any person contravening the provisions of this Order is guilty of an offence under subsection (1) of Section 62 of the Act and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds; and if in the case of a continuing offence the contravention is continued after conviction he is guilty of a further offence thereunder and liable on summary conviction to an additional fine not exceeding forty shillings for every day on which the contravention is so continued.

12. This Order may be cited as the Rural District of Battle (Northiam No. 1 ) Tree Preservation Order 1966.

Provisions of Parts III and VII of the Act as adapted and modified to apply to this Order.

erence     Section 22. (1) The Minister may give directions to the appli-     Authority requiring applications for consent under the cations to     Order, to be referred to him instead of being dealt with by the Authority.
Minister.

(2) A direction under this section may relate either to a particular application or to applications of a class specified in the direction.

(3) Any application in respect of which a direction under this section has effect shall be referred to the Minister accordingly.

(4) Where an application for consent under the Order is referred to the Minister under this section, the provisions of Articles 4 and 5 of the Order shall apply as they apply to an application which falls to be determined by the Authority.

(5) Before determining an application referred to him under this section the Minister shall, if either the applicant or the Authority so desire, afford to each of them an opportunity of appearing before, and being heard by, a person appointed by the Minister for the purpose.

(6) The decision of the Minister on any application referred to him under this section shall be final.

Section 23. (1) Where an application is made ~~to the Authority~~ for consent under the Order and that consent is refused by that Authority or is granted by them subject to conditions, or where any certificate is given by the Authority, the applicant if he is aggrieved by their decision on the application, or by any such certificate, may by notice under this section appeal to the Minister.

(2) A notice under this section shall be served in writing within twenty-eight days from the receipt of notification of the decision or certificate as the case may be, or such longer period as the Minister may allow.

(4) Where an appeal is brought under this section from a decision or certificate of the Authority, the Minister, subject to the following provisions of this section, may allow or dismiss the appeal, or may reverse or vary any part of the decision of the Authority, whether the appeal relates to that part thereof or not, or may cancel any certificate and may deal with the application as if it had been made to him in the first instance.

(5) Before determining an appeal under this section, the Minister shall, if either the appellant or the Authority so desire, afford to each of them an opportunity of appearing before, and being heard by, a person appointed by the Minister for the purpose.

(7) The decision of the Minister on any appeal under this section shall be final.

Section 24. Where an application for consent under the Order is made to the Authority, then unless within two months from the date of receipt of the application, or within such extended period as may at any time be agreed upon in writing between the applicant and the Authority, the Authority either -

(a) give notice to the applicant of their decision on the application; or

(b) give notice to him that the application has been referred to the Minister in accordance with directions given under section 22 of this Act;

the provisions of the last preceding section shall apply in relation to the application as if the consent to which it relates had been refused by the Authority, and as if notification of their decision had been received by the applicant at the end of the said period of two months, or at the end of the said extended period, as the case may be.

Section 27. (1) If it appears to the Authority that it is expedient to revoke or modify any consent under the Order granted on an application made under Article 3 of the Order, the Authority may by order revoke or modify the consent ~~of~~ to such extent as they consider expedient.

(2) An Order under this section shall not take effect unless it is confirmed by the Minister; and the Minister may confirm any such order submitted to him either without modification or subject to such modifications as he considers expedient.

(3) Where <sup>an</sup> the Authority submit an order to the Minister for his confirmation under this section, the Authority shall furnish the Minister with a statement of their reason for making the order and shall serve notice on the owner of the land affected, and on any other person who in their opinion will be affected by the order, and if within the period of twenty-eight days from the service thereof any person on whom the notice is served so requires, the Minister, before confirming the order, shall afford to that person, and to the Authority, an opportunity of appearing before, and being heard by, a person appointed by the Minister for the purpose.

(4) The power conferred by this section to revoke or modify a consent may be exercised at any time before the operations for which consent has been given have been completed.

Provided that the revocation or modification of consent shall not affect so much of those operations as has been previously carried out.

(5) Where a notice has been served in accordance with the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, no operations or further operations as the case may be, in pursuance of the consent granted, shall be carried out pending the decision of the Minister under subsection (2) of this section.

ement- Section 118. (1) Where any person is affected by an Order pro- under section 27 of this Act, or by a notice served on him ns as under subsection (3) of the said section in a case where the avo- order is not confirmed then, if, on the claim made to the on and Authority within the time and in the manner prescribed by fica- Article 9 of the Order, it is shown that he -

(a) has incurred expenditure in carrying out work which is rendered abortive by the revocation, or modification, or stay of operations, as the case may be, or

(b) has otherwise sustained loss or damage which is directly attributable to the revocation, modification, or stay of operations, the Authority shall pay to that person compensation in respect of that expenditure, loss or damage.

(2) For the purposes of this section any expenditure incurred on matters preparatory to acting on the consent shall be taken to be included in the expenditure incurred in carrying out that work.

(3) Subject to the last preceding subsection, no compensation shall be paid under this section in respect of any work carried out in the period after the making of the Order and before the grant of consent which is revoked or modified, or in respect of any other loss or damage (not being loss or damage consisting of depreciation of the value of an interest in land) arising out of anything done or omitted to be done during that period.
